

The Simplest, Strongest, and Most Convincing Cream Separator Arguments

We can not believe that there is a sensible man living who would put his own money into the purchase of any other than a DE LAVAL cream separator, for his own use, if he would but first avail of the opportunity open to everyone to SEE and TRY an improved DE LAVAL machine before buying any other.

It is hardly possible to say more than this. It is hardly possible to put the simple truth in plainer words. It would hardly seem possible to say it more convincingly.

The TRIAL of a DE LAVAL machine is free to every responsible man thinking of buying a cream separator.

Jackies Determined to Turn Tables on Japanese—Local Teams Doing Better Work on Diamond—Castle Fetched Great Game.

This afternoon at the Athletic Park, the Waseda University nine will tackle the U. S. S. Cleveland once more, and the sailors are determined to turn the tables on the Japanese. The first time the teams met, the Jackies won out by 1 to 0 after a stirring game that got everybody excited. The Wasedas have a way of making one run somehow, and then hang on and prevent their opponents from scoring. However, of late the visitors have been getting it in the neck, and their defeats at the hands of the Punahou and C. A. Cs. have made the local fans feel better than they did last week, when the Wasedas had a record of five wins and only one loss.

The Wasedas are a fine lot of little sports, and they play the game for all it is worth. They always have a smile, even when things are going against them, and they play ball all the time. In the outfield they catch anything within reason, and no matter where a ball is hit, there is to be seen a Waseda hanging on to it.

The Japanese have been very successful so far, and they have shown the local men how to work the bunt to perfection. To watch one of the Wasedas at bat and another on third is a treat. The batsman uses his stick as if it were as broad as a tennis racket, and, playing the ball with as much accuracy as a billiard player, bunts it in a dead straight line towards first, and, to make things easier (?) for the man who is trying to field the ball, the batsman is generally running right on top of the sphere as it rolls along parallel with the line.

On Saturday last Castle pitched what was probably the best game ever pitched in Hawaii. He was on the job all the time, and the way he popped them over the plate and sent the Waseda batsmen to the right-about in quick order, was a treat to see. Castle pitched the game of his life and is to be congratulated on his work.

This afternoon, before the game with the Cleveland starts, a combined Japanese school team will try conclusions with the Wasedas. The latter nine will be made up of players who need not take part in the second game—that is, quite a few of them—and the schoolboys should have a great time trying to beat their doughty opponents.

The fans are pleased with themselves nowadays, and when the Portuguese again meet the Wasedas next Sunday there should be a great game played. The local rooters will be on deck, and the way they will whoop things up should rival the Japanese—and that would be going some.

BIG MONEY WAS TAKEN AT RENO CONTEST

Tex Rickard and Gleason Made Fortunes—Moving Picture Profits May, However, Be Curtailed.

Tex Rickard knew what he was doing when he offered $101,000 as a purse for the Jeffries-Johnson fight. His calculations as to how much money the contest would draw panned out all to the good. The receipts at the gates were $270,778.59, and the expenses amounted to $21,000. Deducting the purse and expenses there was $128,000 left for Rickard and Gleason to divide; the promoters also got $33,333 for a sixth interest in the moving pictures.

It is doubtful if ever another world's championship contest will draw as much money as the one that took place on July 4. The fight was unique, and created more interest all over the world than any previous one.

Was the fight a fake? In a way it was, for there is no use of Jeffries' trainers talking their heads off about how they thought the old fellow could win. The men in touch with Jeffries must have known that he was not training properly, and that a man who had been six years out of the game and even then would not do any boxing stunts, could not hope to beat a well-trained, husky, clever boxer like Johnson.

There was big money in the match for everybody concerned, and it did not matter if Jeff was beaten or not. There remains a lot to be told of the big fight, and in future years some of the old "has-beens" who attended on Jeff will open their mouths and tell everything.

FISTIC.

MANY BOXERS ARE READY

CORDELL, CORNYN, MCGURN AND HOAO WILLING ENOUGH

McGurn Has Good Record as Game, Clever Fighter—CordeLL Would Like to Meet Dick Sullivan Again.

It is unfortunate, now that a number of pugilistic stars are in Honolulu, that there should be so little doing in the boxing line. Jack CordeLL, Joe McGurn, Pat Cornyn and Jim Hoao are all looking for matches, and there are other men like Young Gans and a number of others who are willing to take or give a punch—for a consideration.

CordeLL is in light training and could get into the pink of condition within a couple of weeks. He is taking care of himself nowadays, and in Joe McGurn has a partner who keeps him busy with the gloves.

McGurn is a classy boxer and has a long record of fights to his credit. He originally fought in the lightweight class and used to mix it with Jack CordeLL when he was in that class. Of late years Joe has been mixing with the heavier men and included among the men he has met and defeated are Otto Fritch, Jack Clifford, Toby Irwin, Kid George, Johnnie O'Keefe, Howard Baker, Joe Gregg and many other minor lights.

The new arrival in Honolulu fights at welterweight, and all the Coast papers allude to him as a game man, who is clever and able to stay with the best men of his weight. In fact, weight does not scare Joe. He has met men who outweighed him twenty pounds, and has still held his own. "The game Irishman" is the way he is alluded to by main and sporting writers, and with it all Joe is a quiet, decent young fellow, who should make good in Honolulu.

Pat Cornyn returned from the mainland the other day and he is willing enough to have a go at Jack CordeLL. The men will get together as soon as some promoter makes a decent offer, and the resulting match should be a beauty.

Jack CordeLL's one ambition is to have another go at Dick Sullivan, and he is hoping that such an event may come off. With reference to the match with Cornyn, CordeLL is not much in favor of Cornyn's brother bringing off the show. Some other promoter would be more pleasing to Jack, as he thinks that the relationship between boxer and promoter is too close to satisfy the public.

To most people it would seem as if it did not matter much who promoted a show as long as the referee was square and the gate receipts properly accounted for and the boxers paid what they agreed to take. However, at present nothing very definite is known except that Dick Sullivan has announced his intention of getting CordeLL and Cornyn together on a percentage basis if possible.

"The office should seek the man," remarked the quotation dispenser. "Yes, of course," rejoined the avowed aspirant, "but it is handicapped because of its inability to recognize the man."

TRANS-PACIFIC RACE MAY FINISH ON SUNDAY

Wilder Will Send Up Two Flares Off Makapuu Point and One Off Diamond Head—Watch Established.

Now that the three yachts that are taking part in the transpacific race are some ten days out on their long journey, steps are being taken to establish a lookout at Diamond Head. A watch will be kept there for the whitewinged racing craft, and as the Hawaii has arranged to send up two lights at intervals of five minutes when off Makapuu Point, there will be no doubt about the identity of the local boat when she comes along—first, as everybody hopes. Wilder will also send up a flare when passing Diamond Head, and by that time all Honolulu will know how the race has gone.

It is to be hoped, however, that the yachts finish in daylight, for there are thousands of people who would delight in meeting the Hawaii as she sails in a winner, with a large margin to spare.

According to a letter received by a local man yesterday, the start of the race was a pretty sight, and the last seen of the yachts' position showed the Hawaii in the lead by a mile or so.

It is expected that the yachts will make the run down to Honolulu in about thirteen or fourteen days. In that case, on Saturday or Sunday next the leading boat should be sighted, and that it will be the Hawaii is confidently asserted by all Honolulu folk.

TENNIS MEN GETTING READY FOR WALL CUP

Many Entries Expected for Popular Tournament—Richards Will Try and Hold Cup.

Tennis enthusiasts are looking forward to the Wall Cup tournament which is to start up on August 1. Most of the best players are entering for the event, and the Beretania courts should be kept going all the time from now on till the opening day of the tournament.

The Wall Cup is played for every few months, and has to be won three times by any one player before it becomes his property. Young Atherton Richards is the present holder of the trophy, and should he win out again he will share the honor of having two "legs" with Warren and Gee.

Captain Low, A. L. Castle, Richards and a dozen other players will surely take part in the competition, and there should be some fine matches seen before the play ends. Kennedy and Lowrey will be playing and their meeting with Richards will be watched with interest.

The Punahou men are getting into shape for their annual tournament with the Honolulu team, and every preparation is being made for the entertainment of the visitors. Honolulu will have a very strong team this year, and the big mill men will have to play well to have a chance of winning.

INTER-ISLAND POLO IS EXCITING MUCH INTEREST

Kauai and Fifth Cavalry to Open Series—Maui Will Be Strong Again This Season.

On August 10 the polo season proper will open and the inter-island cracks will go up against one another. Kauai and the Fifth Cavalry will open up the ball, and an interesting game should result. Last year there were only three teams—Oahu, Fifth Cavalry and Maui—in the tournament, but now Kauai has once more come in and a quartet of teams will play.

Maui was too strong altogether for the rest of the teams last year, and it was Frank Baldwin who played the star game. This year the Cavalry and Oahu should do better, and Kauai will also be sure to make things merry on the polo field.

Walter Dillingham is getting into form and he is a fine player at all times. Sam Baldwin is playing the same dashing game as he put up last year, and it is expected that he will score many goals in the coming series.

Matches will be played at Moanalua and Leilehua, and no doubt big crowds will attend and watch the most exciting sport of all.

I. B. Braden, a member of the South Coast Yacht Club, writes the Bulletin from Waikiki, stating that the Winsome is certainly taking part in the transpacific race, and that he thinks she will win. Mr. Braden is evidently mistaken, as the Los Angeles Times gives a description of the start of the race, and regrets the fact that her owner, Hay, was unable to take part in the big event and that the Winsome did not start.

WRECKERS AT WORK ON STRANDED AIRSHIP

Zeppelin, Undismayed, Plans Making a Flight to Vienna.

OSNABRUECK, Germany, July 3.—Count Zeppelin disappointed but not discouraged, hurried here today to superintend the salvaging of his latest aerial model, the great airship Deutschland, which came to grief in experienced hands yesterday.

The Count, who will be 72 years old on Friday of next week, has an engagement for the near future to fly from Friedrichshafen to Vienna and exhibit his invention to Emperor Francis Joseph, and he proposes to make good his promise.

The prospects for the early resumption of the passenger service are not bright. The airship company announces that the accident will necessitate a suspension for several months of the advertised excursions.

After hours of perilous flight, during which it was driven hither and thither at the caprice of a gale, the Deutschland found a desperate refuge in the trees of Teutoburgian Wald. Its framework was wrenched and the great envelope badly torn. The thirty-two passengers, including twenty newspaper men, had narrow escapes.

It was found today that it would be necessary to dismantle the airship, and this was begun.
